BC Research Institute for Children's & Women's Health welcomes three new board members

The BC Research Institute for Children's & Women's Health is pleased to welcome three respected business and community leaders as new members of its board of directors. Ms. Carol Gibson, Ms. Lynne Kent, and Dr. Ron Woznow were appointed at the institute's annual general meeting in November 2004.

Ms. Carol Gibson has worked as a labour relations consultant since 2001. She previously held positions as a Vice President of Human Resources with Rogers Cable TV, Limited, and as Director, Human Resources for The Open Learning Agency. She is currently an Employer Representative at the Employment Insurance Board of Referees.

Ms. Lynne Kent has worked as a management consultant since 1992, and for more than three decades has been an active volunteer with various organizations. She currently also serves as a board member of the Gambier Island Community Association, and the YWCA Canada, and recently was chair of the Vancouver Coastal Regional Transition Council, BC Ministry of Children and Families.

Dr. Ron Woznow has over 15 years experience in corporate management and international management consulting, including as current CEO of the Canadian Genetic Diseases Network Inc., CEO of the BC Hazardous Waste Corporation, V.P at Fletcher Challenge Canada, and Senior Associate with Coopers & Lybrand. Dr. Woznow has served on boards of private companies and many community and foundation boards, and is the founding director of the Canadian Gene Cure Foundation.

Members of the 2004/04 board are: Mr. Dennis Bettiol (Secretary-Treasurer), Dr. Don Brooks, Ms. Sue Carruthers (by invitation), Dr. Diane Finegood, Ms. Carol Gibson, Dr. David Hardwick, Ms. Lynne Kent, Ms. Cynthia Loveman (by invitation), Ms. Helen Low (Vice Chair), Mr. Michael Marchbank (Alternates: Ms. Sharon Toohey/Dr. Liz Whynot) Mr. Maurice Mourton (Chair), Mr. David Podmore, Dr. Gavin Stuart (Alternate: Dr. Alison Buchan), Dr. Ron Woznow, and Dr. Stuart MacLeod (ex officio).

Established in 1995, the BC Research Institute for Children's & Women's Health is dedicated to world-class research spanning the entire range of children's and women's health concerns. More than 200 investigators work in the institute's multi-disciplinary environment seeking novel research discoveries. The institute operates in partnership the University of British Columbia (UBC) and the Children's & Women's Health Centre of BC (C&W), an agency of the Provincial Health Services Authority.
